WHY SOME PEOPLE THINK

CELIA CRUZ

IS TOM'S MOTHER.

The undisputed Queen of Salsa. Funny, she doesn't look like a hot sauce.

Kids don't get enough art these days. Not at home. Not at school. Not even from TV. Which is why some of them think that an international Cuban star is the mother of an international movie star. But art transforms lives. In fact, the more art kids get, the more knowledgeable they become in math and science. And the more likely they'll become well-rounded adults. Which is music to any parent's ears. For Ten Simple Ways to get more art in kids' lives, visit AmericansForTheArts.org.
